Subject: Case C-06-5208JF/claim #8dvDABRE

Dear Judge:

I wish to advise you of my disappointment with the handling of the claims for subject case.

Over a long period of time, I have called the Claim Administrator's office to check the the status of the distributions. I was advised that they were still working on it and it takes a long time. Several times I specifically asked about my claim and was told it was in process.

Today when I called regarding my claim I was advised that there was a balance defect in the documents I had submitted and that I had lost any right to my claim.

I have spent countless hours preparing my claim and felt I should have been advised exactly what was wrong or missing.

So who gets the amount I was entitled to? The Claim Administrator?

If there is any corrective action that you can insist on, I and I am sure others would deeply appreciate it.

Sincerely,

Andy Arndt
